Senior Community Services Invites you to attend a

Free Health Fair

This health fair will provide important health and wellness information for seniors and their families. Health providers from various organizations such as Crozer Keystone Health System, Riddle Hospital (providing information on sleep medicine, women's heart health and senior services), Penn State Extension, Visiting Angels (providing information on Alzheimer's and Fall Prevention), Angel Companions (providing blood pressure screenings), APPRISE Health Insurance Counseling, Senior Community Services, COSA, and many others will be present. The Office of District Attorney Katayoun Copeland will provide information on senior exploitation, fraud and scams. Resources and services provided by the District Attorney's Senior Victim Services will also be available.

Energy saving give away will be distributed by PECO.

For more information, please contact Senior Community Services 484-496-2143. Please do not contact the municipality directly, as staff may not be familiar with the program.

Light Refreshments will be served.
